This Form 8-K and other reports filed by EFoodSafety.com, Inc. (the "Registrant" or the "Company") from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission (collectively the "Filings") contain forward looking statements and information that are based upon beliefs of, and information currently available to, the Registrant's management as well as estimates and assumptions made by the Registrant's management. When used in the Filings the words "anticipate", "believe", "estimate", "expect", "future", "intend", "plan" or the negative if these terms and similar expressions as they relate to the Registrant or the Registrant's management identify forward looking statements. Such statements reflect the current view of the Registrant with respect to future events and are subject to risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors relating to the Registrant's industry, operations and results of operations and any businesses that may be acquired by the Registrant. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should the underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may differ significantly from those anticipated, believed, estimated, expected, intended or planned.

ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

The Company filed a complaint in the Superior Court of Riverside County, California on November 5, 2004 against Mr. Karney and other parties alleging breach of fiduciary duty, conversion, constructive trust, fraud and declaratory relief. The Company believes that Mr. Karney misappropriated approximately $189,000 from the Company and attempted to cause the Company to enter into invalid contracts with close personal friends without proper authorization. These friends were also paid Company proceeds without providing any consideration. As of December 2, 2004, the Company completed service of process of its complaint on all named defendants including its former Chief Executive Officer, Clarence "Bill" Karney, AmeriFinancial, Inc., Conn Chemicals Engineering Company, Inc. and Trac Force dba Freshtrak.
