Item 8.01. Other Events

As previously announced, the Company had filed a complaint in the Superior Court of Riverside County, California on November 5, 2004 against Clarence W. Karney, a founder and former officer and director of the Company, and others, alleging breach of fiduciary duty, conversion and fraud. eFoodSafety.com, Inc. v. Karney, et al. (Case No. INC 046894). The Company alleged that Karney misappropriated funds from the Company and attempted to cause the Company to enter into invalid contracts with close personal friends without proper authorization. A default was entered against Karney and then a default judgment for $9,284,910.30 was entered against him on September 29, 2006.

The Company then filed a writ of garnishment in the Judicial District Court, Collin County, Texas, against Signature Stock Transfer, Inc., the Company's transfer agent that held certificates evidencing 25,192,500 shares of the Company's common stock registered in Karney's name, to execute upon such shares to satisfy $4,559,842.50 of the judgment against Karney. On November 15, 2006, the court entered an order directing the transfer agent to deliver the shares to the Company. Appeals were unsuccessful and the judgment is final.

The Company then cancelled the 25,192,500 shares and an additional 5,000,000 shares, for a total of 30,192,500 shares, reducing the number of the Company's issued and outstanding shares to 150,921,980.
